Tye Halverson is the Chief Operating Officer of Southwest Air Conditioning, Inc., Southwest Air Conditioning Service, Inc., and Southwest Plumbing, Inc. Mr. Halverson has over 29 years experience in the mechanical industry.

Tye Halverson has served SMACNA (Sheet Metal and Air Conditioning Contractors National Association) at the local and National level, including, Codes Committee Chairman and Vice President for Southern Nevada chapter. At the national level he has served on the National Residential Contractors Council Steering Committee, Seismic Restraint Task Force and the Western Regional Representative for the Nomination Committee.

Tye Halverson is a member of ASHRAE (American Society of Heating, Refrigeration and Air-Conditioning Engineers) where he served on the Refrigeration Committee.

Tye Halverson served on the Southern Nevada Building Official Committee (SNBO) amendment code review for the adoption of the 2009 Plumbing and Mechanical Codes and the 2009 International Energy Conservation Code adoptions. Mr. Halverson has served as the secretary for the local IAPMO chapter.

Tye Halverson has trained all of the southern Nevada jurisdictions on the SMACNA Duct Inspection Guide. He is active in other associations including, IAQA (Indoor Air Quality Association), NFPA (National Fire Protection Association). As a certified instructor for Nevada OSHA 10 and 50 hour courses he is dedicated to promote safety and excellence. In his spare time he has been active in The Boy Scouts over 20 years.

Tim Collings

Tim Collings is the senior inspector for Salt Lake City Corporation. He has been inspecting plumbing, mechanical, and fire protection systems for Salt Lake City Corporation since August 1981. A licensed plumber in both Wyoming and Utah, Tim was also a licensed plumbing and heating contractor and taught in the plumbing apprenticeship program in Salt Lake City for 18 years. A longtime member of IAPMO, Tim was elected to the board of directors, serving in that capacity for seven years. In addition to his work on the board, Tim served on many IAPMO committees including: the IAPMO Plumbing Code Change Committee; the Mechanical Code Workshop Committee; the Credentials Committee; the Special Seminar Committee; the Research Committee; and the Ad Hoc Committee on Grease Traps. In addition to his wide experience as a committee member, Tim chaired the Appendix C Committee and the Ad Hoc Committee on the Thermal Expansion and is currently chairperson of the UPC Technical Committee. Tim's instruction is supported by a solid background that combines professional experience with a wide variety of committee service.

Roger Fuller

Roger Fuller currently serves the county of Sacramento as a supervising building inspector for plumbing and mechanical inspections. His more than 30 years of experience include 11 years as an HVAC installer and estimator, 11 years as a HVAC contractor, and 12+ years as an inspector/plan reviewer. He holds a wide variety of certifications including Certified Building Official.

Roger has been active in the Sacramento Valley IAPMO chapter for many years, where he has served as the recording secretary. He has been an instructor for California Building Officials and Sacramento Valley Area Building Official chapter for several years. He is the training inspector for his jurisdiction for residential construction including building and energy codes.

Roger's interest is in coordinating the provisions of all codes so they are enforceable and consistent. His contracting experience is infused in his teaching style to make his classes both interesting and applicable.

Michael Mitchell

Michael Mitchell has been involved in the plumbing trade since 1973. He is the senior plumbing inspector for the City and County of San Francisco, a post he's held since 2000. Altogether, he's been a plumbing inspector with the city and county for 17 years.

With half of his career spent on the contracting side of the business, and the balance on code enforcement, Mike brings a wealth of practical knowledge to his classrooms. Besides his various certifications in plumbing and plumbing inspections, he also holds a Doctorate of Jurisprudence, specializing in Civil Procedure.

Mike is an assistant professor at the College of San Mateo, Calif., where he leads the Inspection of Plumbing course. He also teaches at UA Local 467 in Trade Related Math and the Plumbing Code, and was a Plumbing Code instructor for the PHCC.

Mike's teaching style is orientated toward team building skills and collaborative leadership. He has an extensive background in community-based organizations and in presenting city and county programs to constituents.
