Bob Weber, code consultant and former Building Official and Director of the Clark County, Nevada, Building Department, received the 2008 Bobby J. Fowler Award. The most prestigious of the Code Council's honors, the Fowler Award is presented to an individual whose contributions to the building and fire safety industry advance ICC's goals in achieving a safer built environment.

Bob was honored for career accomplishments that include serving as Chairman of the Code Drafting Committee that produced the ICC Performance Code for Buildings and Facilities. He also served as a member of the State of Nevada Public Works Board and the Governor's Blue Ribbon Commission on Fire Safety for the Study of Building and Fire Codes, and as Chairman of the Nevada Fire Marshal's Office Board of Fire Safety. Weber is a past member of the International Conference of Building Officials (ICBO) Board of Directors, the ICBO Evaluation Service and the International Fire Code Institute, and has served on dozens of other boards and committees in Las Vegas, the state of Nevada and nationally.
